

Professional Presentations

Synergee provides workshops or one-on-one sessions on key thinking, communication and learning skills for the corporate market. We provide sessions on Mind Mapping[®], Speed Reading, Memory and Learning, Presentation and Facilitation skills.

These techniques will provide you with the following benefits:

Clearer thinking - quickly and easily plan presentations, brainstorm and solve problems using Mind Maps.

Improved productivity - double or triple how fast you read with Speed Reading. Many executives report that they spend 40% of their working lives reading. By doubling their reading speed, they gain an extra day per week!

Results achieved - through practical experience of the techniques, delegates leave with skills they can use immediately.

Feel connected and inspired - we guarantee that you will be excited and stimulated by what you will learn about how the brain works. You'll find many easy ways to apply what you learn with Synergee to your working and personal life and we endeavour to make sure you enjoy it!

Have fun - learning happens when you have fun. Participants on Synergee courses leave feeling refreshed and happy.
